REPRESENTATION:

Those shareholders not attending the General Shareholders' Meeting may be represented therein via proxy (said proxy does not have to be a shareholder), provided the requirements and formalities stipulated in the Spanish Capital Companies Act, the Company's Articles of Association and the General Shareholders' Meeting Regulations are met.

The representation card must be duly filled out and signed by the shareholder. The cards for attendance, representation and distance voting may be used by shareholders to attend the General Shareholders Meeting in person or to cast their vote via a representative or by other remote means. If, for whatever reason, these cards are not available, on the Company's website (www.corporacionalba.es) shareholders can find templates of the attendance, representation and distance voting cards.

Representation is not permanent and can always be revoked. Personal attendance by the shareholder at the General Shareholders' Meeting shall be considered revocation of such.

The representative must present his/her authorisation on the day and at the location of the Meeting, and identify him/herself via National ID Card or other appropriate official document. If s/he is representing a legal personality, s/he must also present the deed granting power of representation. The representative must also have accepted the conferral of representation by signing the corresponding authorisation.

Each share, whether present or represented at the Meeting, grants the right to one vote.

Any delegation of rights that does not specify the name of the representative (whether in the form of a natural person or legal personality) shall be understood as having been conferred upon the Chair of the Board of Directors. This rule does not signify that the Chair of the Board of Directors or any other director has made a public request for representation by announcing this General Shareholders Meeting.

If the representation conferred does not contain any precise instructions regarding voting, it shall be understood that the instruction is to vote in favour of the proposals put forward by the Board of Directors.

Unless indicated otherwise in the conferral of representation, it shall be understood that the corresponding rights also extend to proposals concerning matters not specified in the Agenda. If the conferral does extend to such proposals, it shall be understood that the representative is instructed to vote against them, unless said conferral indicates otherwise.

If the nominated representative is one of the Company's directors, s/he may find him/herself facing a potential conflict of interest with regard to items 2, 4, 5, 6 y 7 on the Agenda.

If the duly nominated representative (or the Chair of the Board of Directors, if no specific representative has been named) faces a conflict of interest regarding the vote for any of the proposals (whether they are specified in the Agenda or otherwise) to be presented at the Meeting, and if the grantor has not given precise voting instructions for the proposal(s) in question, it shall be understood that the power of representation is then transferred onto the Secretary of the Board of Directors. In any event, if the nominated representative is the Secretary of the Board of Directors, s/he may find him/herself facing a potential conflict of interest with regard to items 2, 4, 5, 6, y 7 on the Agenda.

A conflict of interest shall be deemed to exist in the event that the Meeting is invited to consider matters that are not on the Agenda and concern the withdrawal or filing of a corporate social liability action against the representative, if s/he is, in turn, a director of the Company.

Representation or distance voting may be conferred via the following means:

If, at any moment, the Company has any reasonable doubts regarding the shareholder's accreditations or shareholding, it may ask said shareholder to provide any information or documents it sees fit in order to verify the details stipulated herein.

Shareholders may revoke the aforementioned conferral of representation or distance voting by expressly terminating said conferral using the same means specified above.
