Therefore, in addition to the standard systems for proxy representation and remote voting, the Board of Directors has approved the possibility of attendance to the General Shareholders Meeting by remote electronic means allowing for real-time connection with the venue is available for the shareholders. All these systems comply with the legally and statutory established provisions for this purpose, and in particular incorporate reasonable guarantees to ensure the identity of the parties exercising their voting rights.

In order to assist you in exercising your rights as a shareholder via remote means of communication and your remote electronic attendance at the General Meeting, the Company provides access on the Company's website (www.corporacionalba.es) to the subsection Junta General de Accionistas 2022, where you will find instructions and may complete the details required for each action.

Likewise, for the purposes of the provisions of article 180 of the Capital Companies Act and article 8.2. of the Regulations of the General Meeting, it is hereby stated for the record that the members of the Board of Directors may attend the General Meeting by audio or video conference.

Shareholders are informed that, due to the health crisis, there may be, at the time of the General Meeting, limitations on the maximum capacity and number of attendees at this type of event. This circumstance will determine the impossibility of access to the Meeting venue once the applicable capacity has been reached. At that time, shareholders are warned that it may no longer be possible to attend the Meeting by the alternative means made available to them. Accordingly, the participation and registry in advance through any of these channels, in accordance with the terms set out in this notice, is recommended.

Each share, whether present or represented at the Meeting, grants the right to one vote.

Any delegation of rights that does not specify the name of the representative (whether in the form of a natural person or legal personality) shall be understood as having been conferred upon the Chair of the Board of Directors. This rule does not signify that the Chair of the Board of Directors or any other director has made a public request for representation by announcing this General shareholders' meeting.

If the representation conferred does not contain any precise instructions regarding voting, it shall be understood that the instruction is to vote in favour of the proposals put forward by the Board of Directors.

Unless indicated otherwise in the conferral of representation, it shall be understood that the corresponding rights also extend to proposals concerning matters not specified in the Agenda. If the conferral does extend to such proposals, it shall be understood that the representative is instructed to vote against them, unless said conferral indicates otherwise.

If the nominated representative is one of the Company's directors, s/he may find him/herself facing a potential conflict of interest with regard to items 2, 6, 7 and 8 on the Agenda.

If the duly nominated representative (or the Chair of the Board of Directors, if no specific representative has been named) faces a conflict of interest regarding the vote for any of the proposals (whether they are specified in the Agenda or otherwise) to be presented at the Meeting, and if the grantor has not given precise voting instructions for the proposal(s) in question, it shall be understood that the power of representation is then transferred onto the Secretary of the Board of Directors for these specific item.
